This Spirit Attachment .....Her Voice Filling This Dark Room

-by B. Edwards

This spirit attachment
won't let up
with the chatter tonight

her voice filling
this dark room

angry whispers

she's throwing out
the threats
insults
riddle talk

always with the damn riddle talk

I'm trying desperately
to get to sleep
but it's just not happening

so far the sleep-aid I took seems ineffective

I can't really complain most nights it does tbe job but every now and again my luck just runs out

it's almost one o'clock in the morning it's cold outside and windy as hell sleep is evading me

this voice....this spirit attachment requires no sleep
this is her prime time to wreak havoc I've been in this same situation before and sometimes the nights seem to blend together
